

Redistricting Public Meeting Schedule

By law, the Legislature must redraw legislative and congressional district boundaries to reflect changes in population every 10 years, immediately following the decennial census. Town hall meetings are open to anyone who would like to attend, but are not the only chance for public comment. All Oklahomans are encouraged to contact their state representative or email the House and Senate Redistricting Office at redistricting@oksenate.gov or redistrictoklahoma2020@okhouse.gov to provide feedback on communities of interest, local preferences and other thoughts on the redistricting process.

Upcoming town halls to discuss redistricting include:

Oklahoma State Capitol, Room 535, 2300 N. Lincoln Boulevard, Oklahoma City, OK 73105
