(c) As used in this section, "recommendation for final passage out of committee" means a "Do Pass", "Do Pass as Amended" or a "Do Not Pass" motion. A "Do Pass" motion takes precedence over any other motions for final passage.

House Rules

(d) Only those committee members present may vote on any matter. No person shall cast a vote on behalf of any committee member eligible to vote in any House committee.

7.8 – Committee Recommendations

(a) When any committee returns a bill or resolution with the recommendation of “Do Pass” or “Do Pass as Amended”, the same shall be published on the House Calendar in numerical order by bill or resolution number under the heading “Bills on General Order” or “Joint Resolutions on General Order”.

The bill summary shall include a description of any repealers contained in a bill or joint resolution. The fiscal analysis contained within a bill summary shall state the estimated increase or decrease in revenues or expenditures and the present and future fiscal implications of the bill, if applicable.

1. Meaning of requirement that fiscal analysis must “accompany” a bill

The phrase “accompanied by a fiscal analysis” means that the fiscal analysis prepared for a particular bill or resolution must be distributed on the House Floor before that bill or resolution may be taken up for consideration, HP 7.11 - 1. (2005) Fiscal Impact Statements.

House Rules

5. Format of bill summary not important if substance of fiscal analysis is present

Deviation in the format of a bill summary is irrelevant if the required fiscal analysis is present, HP 7.11 - 7. (2012) Formatting of Bill Summary Irrelevant if Fiscal Analysis Present.

6. Possible future constitutional defect in bill itself not relevant to accuracy of fiscal analysis

The accuracy of a fiscal analysis does not depend on whether a potential constitutional defect may exist within the bill itself, HP 7.11 - 8. (2014) Potential Constitutional Defect Not Relevant to Accuracy of Fiscal Impact Analysis.

(b) All bills affecting any retirement system authorized by law shall be accompanied by a bill summary which shall include an estimate of the cost and actuarial analysis of the measure upon being reported favorably by any standing committee unless the actuarial analysis for the bill is governed by the Oklahoma Pension Legislation Actuarial Analysis Act. The estimate and actuarial analysis shall be prepared by an actuary engaged by the House of Representatives.

(c) If any measure of the type delineated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section is scheduled for floor consideration without a bill summary having been prepared, it shall be the right of any member to raise a point of order on the Floor and the presiding officer may, in his or her discretion, withdraw the measure from further consideration until a summary is made available.

(d) The accuracy of a fiscal or actuarial analysis contained within the bill summary shall not be a basis for a point of order under these Rules.

(e) The principal House author may publish what he or she believes to be the "legislative intent" of the measure in question. Such a document shall not be drafted by persons employed within the Legal, Fiscal or Research Divisions of the House Staff; however, the principal House author may consult with such employees as needed.

No other person except the principal House author of the measure in question shall submit a discharge petition to the Clerk. The Clerk shall determine if the discharge petition contains the necessary signatures as required by this section. If the discharge petition contains the necessary signatures, the Clerk shall forward the petition to the Speaker of the House or the Speaker's designee.

(d) Upon receipt of the discharge petition from the Clerk of the House, the Speaker of the House or the Speaker's designee shall place the bill or resolution on the daily House floor agenda. The Clerk of the House shall cause the discharge petition, along with the attached measure, to be published upon the House website.

(e) The Speaker of the House or the Speaker's designee shall not place a bill or resolution on the daily House floor agenda if the discharge petition pertaining to the bill or resolution was filed after 12:00 noon on the Tuesday immediately prior to the final date for Third Reading in either regular session.

(e) In the event a committee must subpoena a witness or witnesses, or otherwise subpoena production of documents, materials or other evidence, such subpoenas shall be limited to matters reasonably related to the areas of legislative responsibility delegated to the committee and shall be within the reasonable scope of the committee's investigation.

(f) If the committee shall require the deposition of witnesses, either residing within or without the state, such depositions shall be taken in the manner prescribed by law for the taking of depositions in civil actions in the district courts. (d) In such case where no main floor amendment shall be timely filed as defined in paragraph (b) of Section 8.6 of this

(f) Beginning on the Monday falling two (2) weeks prior to a Third Reading deadline, amendments to strike the Title or the Enacting or Resolving Clause of a bill or joint resolution shall be in order only when offered by the principal author of such bill or resolution and upon receiving prior approval from the House Rules Committee. Amendments offered under this paragraph shall not be subject to the time constraints mandated by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

1. Announcement of approval for author to strike title

It is permissible for the vice chair of the Rules Committee to announce the approval given by the Rules Committee to offer an amendment to strike the title and for the vice chair to then offer the motion, on behalf of the measure's author, to strike the title, HP 8.6 - 1. (2007) Recommendation of Rules Committee and Motion to Strike Title.

Rule 8. Order of Business and Legislative Process

2. Verbalization of motion to strike title on A & B measures

It is the custom and practice of the House for the presiding officer to seek unanimous consent on behalf of the A & B chair to strike the title on bills affecting revenue or appropriations, HP 8.6 - 6. (2009) Verbalization of Motion to Strike Title by Appropriations Chair.

3. Amendments to strike title on retirement measures

Retirement measures affecting revenue or appropriations fall within the authority of the A & B chair to offer amendments to strike the title that were not prefiled, HP 8.6 - 7. (2010) Authority to Strike Title on Retirement Measures Affecting Revenue.

4. Authority of A & B Chair to strike title regardless of representations in bill summary

If the A & B chair believes that the bill has a fiscal impact, the chair retains the authority to offer an amendment to strike the title even though the bill summary produced by the House staff states that the bill has no fiscal impact, HP 8.6 – 8. (2014) Authority of Chair to Offer Amendment to Strike Title Regardless of Statements Published in Bill Summary.

House Rules

(h) In the event a bill or joint resolution is published on the Floor Calendar and then subsequently removed while time remains for filing floor amendments as provided in this Rule, such bill or joint resolution, if published again on the Floor Calendar, shall not be considered by the House until the remaining time for filing floor amendments is concluded.

(i) When considering a measure section by section pursuant to paragraph (a) of Section 8.5 of this Rule, a motion to strike a section when such section is under individual consideration shall not be subject to the time constraints established by this Rule for consideration of regularly filed floor amendments.

1. Order of presentation of floor amendments

The presiding officer has the prerogative and authority to determine the order of consideration of floor amendments and is not required to announce a reason for the order of presentation chosen, HP 8.7 - 2. (2007) Order of Presentation of Floor Amendments.

Rule 8. Order of Business and Legislative Process

(b) The adoption of an amendment to a section shall not preclude further amendment of that section so long as subsequent amendments do not purport to amend the same language previously amended. If a bill is being considered section by section or item by item, only amendments to the section or item under consideration shall be in order.

1. Amendment of same language more than once

When a bill is under consideration on the House Floor, the same language in the bill cannot be amended multiple times, HP 8.7 - 3. (2011) Amendment of Language Previously Amended Prohibited.

(c) For the purpose of this Rule, an amendment shall be deemed pending only after its author has been recognized by the presiding officer and has moved its adoption.

(d) The body of a bill or joint resolution shall not be defaced or interlined, but all proposed amendments shall be separately submitted, noting the page and line, and shall be considered timely filed only if the principal author of the amendment has electronically submitted such amendment in completed form to the Office of the Clerk within the time constraints provided under paragraphs (b) and (c) of Section 8.6 of this Rule.

House Rules

8.8 – Floor Substitutes Prohibited

The House of Representatives shall not consider any floor amendments offered in the form of a floor substitute. An amendment shall be deemed a floor substitute only if adoption of the proposed amendment would result in replacement of all sections of the measure in question other than the section containing the effective date or emergency clause.

1. Proposed amendment not floor sub if a section of bill still remains after adoption of amendment

A proposed amendment is not a floor substitute, as prohibited by Section 8.8, when a section of the bill remains after the amendment is adopted even though the retained section has been renumbered within the proposed amendment, HP 8.8 - 1. (2013) Proposed Amendment Not Floor Substitute if a Section of Measure in Question Remains after Adoption of Amendment.

2. Senate amendments (SAs) presented as floor substitute not prohibited

8.9 – Amendment of General Appropriations Bill

Whenever an amendment is offered to a General Appropriations Bill that would increase any line item of such bill, such amendment shall show the amount by line item of the increase and shall decrease a line item or items within the same bill in an amount or amounts equivalent to or greater than the increase required by the amendment.

Rule 8. Order of Business and Legislative Process

1. Amendments to proposed main amendment to GA bill

The requirements of House Rule 8.9 do not apply to proposed amendments offered to a pending main amendment to a GA bill, HP 8.9 - 1. (2010) Amendments Offered to a Proposed Main Amendment to a General Appropriation Bill.

8.10 – Amendment Summary

(a) All proposed amendments to bills or joint resolutions whose adoption will have a fiscal impact, including the affecting of revenues, expenditures or fiscal liability, shall be accompanied by a written summary which shall contain a fiscal analysis upon being filed with the Office of the Clerk. The written summary filed with the amendment shall state the estimated increase or decrease in revenues or expenditures and the present and future fiscal implications of passage of the amended bill, if applicable. The summary shall not express comment or opinion relative to the merits of the amendment proposed. The requirements of this section shall not apply to amendments purporting to strike the Title or the Enacting or Resolving Clause of any bill or joint resolution.

1. Determination of need for fiscal analysis on floor amendments

Necessity of having a fiscal analysis on a floor amendment will be determined on the basis of the informed opinion of the A & B Chair, HP 8.10 - 2. (2009) Determination of Need for Fiscal Summary to Accompany Floor Amendment.

(b) Except as may be otherwise required by the Oklahoma Pension Legislation Actuarial Analysis Act, all amendments to bills or joint resolutions affecting any retirement system authorized by law shall be accompanied by a summary which shall include an estimate and actuarial analysis of the present and future fiscal implications of passage of the amended bill. The estimate and actuarial analysis contained in the summary shall be prepared by an actuary engaged by the House of Representatives.

(c) The accuracy of a fiscal or actuarial analysis contained within the written summary shall not be a basis for a point of order under these Rules.

8.11 – Germaneness of House Amendments

The House shall not consider any proposed amendment not germane to the subject of the House bill or resolution. An amendment to a main amendment must be germane to both the main amendment and the measure which it purports to amend.

1. Germaneness of committee amendments not open to question on House Floor

While a bill is in committee, the committee chair determines the germaneness of committee amendments. After a bill is reported from committee, the presiding officer will not look behind the procedural rulings made in committee, HP 8.11 - 1. (2007) Germaneness of Committee Amendments.

2. Germaneness requirement not relevant to motion to reject SAs

The question of germaneness is not relevant to a motion to reject Senate amendments on a House bill, only upon a motion to adopt Senate amendments, HP 8.11 - 2. (2007) Germaneness of Motion to Reject Senate Amendments.

Rule 8. Order of Business and Legislative Process

3. Germaneness of amendment proposed to constitutional amendment

A floor amendment proposing statutory changes is not germane to the subject of a bill that contains proposed amendments to the Oklahoma Constitution, HP 8.11 - 3. (2008) Germaneness of Floor Amendment Offered to Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

4. Germaneness requirement for amendments not applicable to bill itself

Germaneness rule is applicable only to amendments and is not relevant to whether a bill adheres to the single subject rule contained in the Oklahoma Constitution, HP 8.11 - 4. (2008) Germaneness of Legislation Itself.

5. Controlling factor of germaneness is subject matter not title of law

Subject matter and not placement in the same title of law is the determining factor as to whether an amendment is germane to a bill, HP 8.11 - 5. (2009) Controlling Factor of Germaneness is Subject Matter.

6. Method for determining whether an amendment is germane

A proposed floor amendment is presumed to be germane until proven otherwise.

The question of germaneness is a question of fact to be determined by the Chair as the trier of fact. When raised, the burden of proof rests on the member raising the point of order to explain why the amendment is not germane.

The presiding officer will determine, by the preponderance of the evidence, whether the amendment is germane to the measure to be amended.

The only evidence considered by the Chair is the amendment under consideration and the published bill or resolution to be amended, HP 8.11 - 6. (2009) Method of Determining Germaneness of Floor Amendments.

House Rules

7. Amendment adding only an Emergency Clause always germane

A proposed amendment containing only an emergency clause is always germane to the subject of the bill under consideration, HP 8.11 - 7. (2013) Proposed Amendment Containing Only Emergency Clause Germane to Subject of Measure.

8.12 – Amendments Out of Order

An amendment is out of order if it is the principal substance of a bill or resolution that has received an unfavorable committee report, has been withdrawn from further consideration by the principal author or has not been reported favorably by the committee of reference in either session of the current Legislature and may not be offered to a bill or resolution on the Floor Calendar and under consideration by the House. Any amendment that is substantially the same, and identical as to specific intent and purpose, as the bill or resolution residing in the committee of reference is covered by this Rule, unless the bill or resolution under amendment is substantially the same as the bill or resolution residing in the committee of reference.

1. Language of bill not reported out of committee cannot be used as floor amendment

Bills not reported out of a House committee cannot be introduced as floor amendments to some other bill during either session of the current Legislature, HP 8.12 - 1. (2007) Improper Floor Amendments.

2. Proposed amendment identical to language of House bill in possession of Senate not prohibited

A floor amendment consisting of language also contained in a House bill already in possession of the Senate is not prohibited, HP 8.12 - 2. (2009) Floor Amendments Mirroring House Bills in Possession of Senate.

Rule 8. Order of Business and Legislative Process

3. Language of bill not reported out of committee can be properly used as Conference Committee Substitute

Section 8.12 does not apply to conference committee substitutes, meaning that language from bills not reported out of committee can be used in conference substitutes, HP 8.12 - 3. (2009) House Rule 8.12 Not Applicable to Conference Committee Substitutes.

8.13 – Reconsideration

A motion to reconsider any vote on the adoption or rejection of an amendment, or the adoption or rejection of a section of any bill or joint resolution, may be made by any member prior to the advancement of such measure from General Order, which motion shall be subject to debate.

The motion to reconsider may be laid on the table without affecting the question in reference to which the motion is made thereby resulting in a final disposition of the motion.

8.14 – Motion to Commit

A motion may be made during the reading or consideration of any bill or joint resolution on General Order to commit the bill to a standing or special committee, with or without instructions. A motion to commit with instructions shall be electronically submitted to the Office of the Clerk prior to consideration by the House.

1. Motion to commit still in order after Third Reading deadline

A motion to recommit is still in order after the expiration of the Third Reading deadlines, HP 8.14 - 1. (2009) Motion to Commit After Third Reading Deadline.

House Rules

2. Motion to commit understood to be without instructions, unless instructions submitted

Unless instructions have been submitted, it is the custom and practice of the House that a motion to commit is understood to be offered without instructions, HP 8.14 - 2. (2015) Unless Instructions Submitted, Motion to Commit Understood to be Without Instructions.

8.15 – Motion to Advance from General Order

A motion to advance a bill or joint resolution from General Order shall not be in order until all opportunities provided by this Rule for filing proposed amendments shall be afforded the House. Once a motion to advance from General Order has been adopted, the bill or resolution shall be considered engrossed and on Third Reading.

CHAPTER C. BILLS AND JOINT RESOLUTIONS ON THIRD READING OR FOURTH READING

8.16 – Consideration and Debate

(a) After Third Reading or Fourth Reading of a bill or joint resolution, the presiding officer shall put the question in the following manner: “The Question Before the House is, shall the Bill or Joint Resolution Pass?”

(b) After Third Reading but before the vote is ordered, unless prohibited by Section 7.20 of these Rules, the question shall be subject to debate. After Fourth Reading but before the vote is ordered, unless prohibited by Section 7.20 of these rules, the question shall be subject to debate.

(c) As governed by paragraph (b) of this section, debate shall be limited to one (1) hour, equally divided between the proponents and opponents of the question, provided that no member may speak for more than ten (10) minutes.

Rule 8. Order of Business and Legislative Process

1. Debate requested only in favor is not recognized

In the absence of debate in opposition to final passage of a bill, any debate offered only in favor is waived, HP 8.16 - 1. (2007) Recognition for Debate After Third Reading.

2. Debate requested only in opposition is recognized

Debate in opposition to a measure will be entertained regardless of whether or not debate in favor of a measure has also been requested, HP 8.16 - 1A. (2009) Debate in Opposition Permitted Even if Debate in Favor Not Requested.

(d) Five (5) minutes of the time allocated to the proponents of the bill or joint resolution shall be reserved to the principal author, and the principal author shall have the right to close the debate.

(e) The question of passage of a bill or joint resolution on Third or Fourth Reading shall be decided by recorded vote after declaration of the question by the presiding officer.

8.17 – Amendments

No bill or joint resolution on Third or Fourth Reading shall be subject to amendment.

8.18 – Consideration of Emergency Clause

(a) When any bill or joint resolution containing a title and enacting clause is being considered on Third Reading or Fourth Reading, and such a bill or joint resolution contains an emergency clause, the emergency clause shall constitute a separate question and shall be subject to debate.

(b) When any bill or joint resolution lacking a title or enacting clause is being considered on Third Reading and such a bill or joint resolution contains an emergency clause, the House shall not consider the emergency clause. The vote on Third Reading shall be considered the vote on the emergency clause and shall be recorded as such in the House Journal.

1. Request for debate in opposition to Emergency must give rise to actual debate in opposition

A request for debate in opposition to an emergency clause must give rise to actual debate in opposition, HP 8.18 - 1. (2009) Request for Debate in Opposition to Emergency Clause Must Give Rise to Actual Debate.

2. Questions must pertain to Emergency itself and not to bill

Questions posed during consideration of the emergency clause must pertain to the emergency clause itself rather than to the previously passed measure, HP 8.18 - 2. (2010) Questions Must Pertain to Adoption of Emergency.

3. Validity of Emergency up to House

It is up to the House itself to decide whether to adopt the emergency clause included in a bill, HP 8.18 - 3. (2012) Appropriateness of Emergency Section Determined by House Itself.

4. Consideration of Emergency clause still in order

If the measure itself is mistakenly passed prior to the time it was properly eligible for consideration under House rules and no point of order was raised prior to final passage, immediate consideration of the emergency clause is in order, HP 8.18 - 4. (2013) Consideration of Emergency Clause on Bill Erroneously Passed before Conclusion of Amendment Cycle.
